Hello, and thank you for all the questions you've sent in. Feel free to continue submitting any new questions at wespenreproductions@gmail.com and put "Q&A" in the subject line, so we won't miss your email. As usual, we might have slightly corrected some grammar in the questions, and at times, we've shortened them, but never out of context.

OK, so let's start...

QUESTION 1: I'm out on the road, driving my car and I have a friend with me as we are heading somewhere together. What if we crash and we die simultaneously, do we see each other moments after death? If so, and considering you've learned

Video 200: Q&A Session #43

[about] a way out of this matrix/patrix, can I take my friend with me when I escape the grid, if he trusts me?

ANSWER: There are firsthand experiences from people who have died simultaneously in accidents and come back, having met each other outside their bodies. So, we would suggest that sometimes they do and sometimes they don't.

Having said that, the afterlife is designed in such a way that you are given the experience that fits your belief system. Each afterlife experience is tailor-made just for the individual. For this reason, it is unlikely that you would move through this process with another soul. We, of course, cannot say that this is a guarantee. We have no way of knowing, personally, and can only base this answer on what we have heard and read from others who have memory of their afterlife experience. Just as you have guides who will come for you after death to lead you through the process, so will this other person.

If we look at it from yet another angle, you can hypothetically take your friend with you, if your friend gives his or her consent. However, if your friend is completely ignorant about the KHAA/Greater Universe outside the Matrix, they might not experience the same things you do. They are not prepared. Just something to take into consideration, They might not even see a Grid, if it's not within their frequency range. It's more likely that your friend will go the usual route because of their lack of knowledge.

QUESTION 2: When we/I are finally in the KHAA, after going through the Grid, will we be masculine, feminine or neutral? Also, if we once again become creator gods, once through the grid, how are we related to the other gods, i.e. Queen of the Stars/King En.lil Sr./Prince En.ki/Marduk/Prince En.lil Jr/Isis & Ereshkigal, if we are 'royal' and the Queen's soul children? Are we equally related to the others I mentioned, or will they be seen as we see and look up to the U.K. royal family and we'll just be seen as much lower 'royals' down the genealogy line?

ANSWER: People in general have a misunderstanding of masculine and feminine and compare that to gender—man and woman. This is not accurate. Masculine and feminine energies have nothing to do with gender. The Universe is feminine in nature—it's a creative force. As a creator god, you are using your feminine energies when you come up with ideas to create things. It's the masculine energy that works on manifesting it "outside," So; they work in conjunction with each other. Masculine energies are outgoing and hands-on, while feminine energies are introverted and creative. Humans, whether they are men or women, have both masculine and feminine energies inside of them. The same principle applies in the nonphysical dimensions and densities.

QUESTION 3: When I'm long gone from this planet and have managed to escape the Patrix, and I've willed myself to Orion; if I instruct my children to call for me when their time is up, will I hear them? If so, can I assist them out of the Patrix?

ANSWER: It's difficult to say. Here, within this construct, we are very attached to our loved ones—particularly family. This dynamic might work a little differently once we're out of here, and we might not look at things exactly the way we do now. Therefore, you might be more interested in helping humankind as a whole, rather than just your immediate family and friends—it remains to be seen.

We don't know how much communication from this Patrix is being received outside of it. Some of us have been calling for help for a long time, and we've only been guided to do the work for ourselves, and that is only in a few instances. It does not seem that help, in the way we think of it, is something that we can receive from outside of this construct. We don't have the knowledge or the experience to understand the details of how this works. We have our own questions regarding this. We trust that we will better understand some of these things after we have quit this experiment. One thing we do understand is that we contradict our own intentions so many times, we must appear to outsiders as very confused. We shun any religion or savior narrative as being manipulation, and yet we want to be saved and be saviors ourselves, as well. These two belief patterns contradict and cancel each other out. We would agree that, for the most part, humanity is deeply confused.

But is it possible? Theoretically, it might, but even if so, your loved ones need to take themselves out of the Grid on their own. Once outside, that's another thing—then you can definitely meet again and most likely will, if the parties wish to do that.

QUESTION 4: You recently stated that the W.P.P. were first published in this time-loop; how do you know that for a certainty? Are you and all the people that found your papers 'Glitches'? And... if we are indeed glitches, why now? Why this time-line/loop? Have a feeling Enki is behind it for some nefarious reason/s.

ANSWER: I, Wes, know this because of the extraterrestrial connection I had on a daily basis over a period of at least five years while I was writing my papers. This must be experienced because it's impossible to "convince" anybody else who has not had my experience. I can only tell people what I feel convinced about after having had that connection and done my own research upon that. My conviction is that this is the first time the WPP were released—it didn't happen in other time-loops. This has broken a long cycle of reincarnations for me, and hopefully for many others. The main reason it happened now was because all our research point towards that we'll soon go through a "reset," where our time-loops will be broken. One road will lead to the Singularity and the other to ascension toward En.ki's/EA's hEAven. If you have a loop that's been going on "forever," and you suddenly insert something new, way out of the ordinary, it's going to interfere considerably with the loop. Certain beings from outside the Matrix wanted to know why the human soul group hasn't graduated yet.

All I can give you is my own conviction that this is not a mind game by En.ki. I have no way to prove that to others—only to myself from firsthand experience and because my source needs to remain anonymous.

QUESTION 5: What would be the task for a human that forgave an overlord without first visiting your video on "Another Slant on Forgiveness"? As a targeted individual, I rarely have a moment's peace. I feel like now has been the only time I can share my feelings with someone, without fear.

ANSWER: We're not completely sure we understand the word "task" in this context, but we'll try to answer anyway. If you, at this moment, completely forgive the Overlords, it means that you justify their actions, and they don't need to make up for their actions and take their own responsibility. Forgiveness is an energetic thing and not a physical thing, so to speak. If humanity just forgave the Overlords, it completely justifies what the Overlords have done, and we have nothing to "complain" about because they are then off the hook. All that happens is that you won't have a "vote" when it comes to judging their actions later because you've already forgiven them, without them having to make any amends. When we say "you," it's not directed to you personally but to everybody. The question is, why would you forgive them?

You have defined yourself as a "targeted individual". We don't know exactly in what way you're targeted, but we'll try to give a general answer. If this is how you identify yourself, then this is what you will be. We project what we are to the external reality by what we feel inside. Most people do not realize that their state of fear is what is creating the fearful experiences they have. You are attracting things that make you afraid by being afraid of them. Work on overcoming your fears and whatever it is that you are experiencing will dissolve and go away to find someone else that is easier to frighten. This is the only thing that is feeding and giving strength to these interactions. Please see our video on Thoughtforms for more things to consider regarding this issue.

QUESTION 6: In Video 177 you say twin-flames is a Luciferian experiment to see if people can "ascend" faster. I thought it was a universal phenomenon, for instance we have the Aeons, who were created in pairs. Also, we have binary stars, and so on, "as above, so below". What do you think?

ANSWER: From what we understand, this phenomenon isn't present everywhere in the Universe. There are beings who exist in the Universe who have not had their soul split/divided in the way we have come to understand Twin Flames. This seems to be strictly something that is done here. Duality is not something that is experienced everywhere in the Universe.

It's our understanding that here on Earth, at one point or another, En.ki decided to put two splinters from the same soul in the same time-loop so they had the potential to find each other. He probably wanted to see how that would affect a soul's evolution within the Construct/Matrix.

QUESTION 7: Willingness of the One/Law of Attraction, who gave us this information which makes it possible for those of us who are searching to have this information? Who do you mean as being the 'ONE?'... THE QUEEN OF ORION?

Video 200: Q&A Session #43

ANSWER: By the ONE, we understand this to mean the KHAA or the Universe as She exists in the wholeness of creation. Who gave us or made it possible for us to find information that we are seeking? We do. Everything we ever wanted to know is contained within us. WE are the Living Library.

If we want to break it down some more, we could say there are two “ONEs.” The real ONE is the Divine Feminine, whom many call Source, All That Is, First Source, and so on, as mentioned above. It’s Spirit, who has always existed because She (Spirit) existed before time. This is not the Queen, but the Queen is the first emanation of the Divine Feminine/Spirit. The Queen, who then perceived Herself as an exterior part of the Divine Feminine, went out to create the universes. The other “ONE” is a fake—it’s En.ki playing God (and sometimes Goddess, depending on the circumstance). En.ki has placed himself here as a mimic of the Goddess (the Queen), and even he acknowledges a Source in some religions, but he teaches through his proxies that Source is masculine and sometimes neuter—very rarely feminine. We are living in a patriarchy. The information about Oneness, as we’ve known it in this construct, comes from En.ki. But before he gave us amnesia, we knew that the Universe is feminine, which is evident in most ancient texts.

QUESTION 8: Why do you suppose not too many people have opened up their minds to the W.P.P. (Wes Penre Papers)? Are they all still asleep? Or are they not meant to know as part of their freewill or lack thereof?

ANSWER: From our perspective, many people have opened their minds to consider this information. What they choose to do with this information is up to them.

We believe there are not many souls here from the original human soul group that inhabited Tiamaat. It’s our impression that most people on Earth lack the original soul and are therefore of the Construct (En.ki made copies/mimics of the real soul, and we call this the Artificial Soul) or they are star beings from outside, who have been trapped here. The latter can potentially be drawn to this information, but it’s harder for them because they are not of the Queen’s soul energy. They don’t feel the same “pull.” The former, will never be drawn to us because it’s not real for them. To them, this construct is all there is—and they are correct in that. Thus, it’s a matter for those of the original soul group to find this material, and many of them are still stuck in trauma and the burdens of daily life. They are still too distracted to be able to “wake up.”

QUESTION 9: John dies at age of 25, and his parents, age 52, continue living. John goes through the Tunnel of Light and gets immediately incarnated. But how when his parents continue living?

ANSWER: Because “time” does not work the way most of us believe it works. There can be many, many, many alternate timelines or realities co-existing at the same moment. There are many “you’s” existing at this moment, concurrently. You are just focusing on THIS experience and therefore your awareness of these other aspects is limited. Part of this is due to the design of this particular experiment. We are created here with our awareness being cut off, or in other words, amnesia. There are intentional blocks or barriers in place that are part of our make-up, which make it very difficult, if not impossible, to focus our awareness on more than one experience at a time. However, KNOW THIS - You are infinite in your awareness/consciousness! You have the ability to focus different aspects of your consciousness in many different “areas”, simultaneously, and doing this does not diminish the wholeness that is you. You can send out your fires into many different areas of focus and each of those fires contain the entire “YOU”, while at the same time the “YOU” that is also focused on the present moment is not lessened in the slightest. You can do this as many times as you want and never exhaust yourself or “run out”, in any way. We are infinite and eternal. While in here, though, we are made to forget this.

We create different timelines on a continual basis—we branch out and spread our soul energy across different potential timelines. So, you can still incarnate on a timeline that is very similar to the one you live in now, where your parents are still 27 years old when you are born, just like last time. It’s similar to if you sit down and think yourself to Australia and Norway at the same time...your mind/energy will exist in two different places. You split your mind and your thoughts, i.e. you send your soul fire to two different places at once, or almost at once. This might sound esoteric, but in YOUR personal Universe, there is only you, and you are the Creator.

Video 200: Q&A Session #43

QUESTION 10: Knowing what we know now in regards to how Enki and Marduk pose as various gods, Enki's Singularity, so on and so forth; could I still have this knowledge and still be Pagan, but instead not work with these gods and goddesses since I know of their true identity (in some way)? Do they only pose as gods, or do they pose as goddesses as well?

ANSWER: When we think “pagan,” it usually means you are not a Christian. However, the important thing is how you direct your energy—whom you are giving your energy to. People who don't know who Pan is—or any other god or deity, for that matter—will give their energy away. Just don't give your energy away to some outside deity, god, or goddess.

Yes, these beings can choose to identify themselves as anything they want. They are not limited by masculine or feminine energy. There have been many indications that female deities have impersonated males and males have impersonated females. You are free to decide what you want to do. However, we would not encourage worship of any kind. It is our understanding that the Spirit which was embodied in and expressed as our original planetary home does not inhabit THIS experiment in the same way. It is most likely that En.ki has placed HIMSELF as Goddess, where Earth is concerned.

QUESTION 11: Rumour has it that the controllers are culling the sheeple; if they need energy from us to support this reality and themselves, why the cull?

ANSWER: There are many rumors floating around about culling the population. It's true that people get less and less children these days, but other than that, we don't see much culling going on—not more than it's always been. If they need to cull it, they will do so in covert manners, like viruses and staged and directed catastrophes, but right now, they do need a certain amount of people. However, there is probably a limit to how many people they can handle and control. What that limit is, we don't know. So, we're not saying there won't be any cull at all, but to what degree? There is a lot of fear-mongering on this subject out there, and we believe that's the main purpose.
