Welcome to another Q&A video! As usual, please submit your questions at wespenreproductions@gmail.com and put "Q&A" in the subject line, so we won't miss your email. Your contribution is greatly appreciated! Here are today's questions:

QUESTION 1: Is the Orion Constellation we see in the night sky the real Orion (our home), or is it just a projection, a reflection of the Orion in the 8th and 9th Heaven?

ANSWER: Earth is within a Firmament that has a solid barrier around it that can't be penetrated so long as we have a human body. This dome is transparent, as if made of glass, and it acts like a mirror or a prism. The stars and the planets we see in the night-sky are mere reflections of what is outside the Earth's atmosphere, i.e. the 5 lower heavens. So, the Constellation of Orion that we see in the sky, consisting of a few visible stars, is just a part of the Orion "Empire," which stretches outside our solar system—beyond the planet Saturn. Orion, aka the 8th and 9th Heavens is enormous in "size," and we can only perceive about 4% of it—the rest is what science calls dark matter and dark energy. To answer your question: yes, the stars of Orion is a reflection because we see them through a domelike structure, but outside this structure, the stars are real. All stars are in the 8th Heaven, and potentially in the 9th Heaven, as well.

QUESTION 2: What's the purpose of curing ourselves while we are here if our current range of emotions will not come with us when we die?

ANSWER: As long as we are a soul, we are impacted and influenced by our emotions. Emotions are what shape us and mold our experiences into the personality we become. There is no guarantee that we do not take that with us. Who you are "here" is who you will be "there." No one automatically transforms into a perfect state of being once they are outside of this Earthly realm. Considering that this is a possibility, and everything you have learned up to this point, why do YOU think it may be helpful to work on our own shadow sides while we are here? No matter what we say, the only conclusion that is valuable in your life is the one YOU come to about yourself.

QUESTION 3: Who is the Archangel Gabriel mentioned in the Bible and is he connected with Michael/Sabaoth? What's his role, if he has one?

ANSWER: According to the ancient Gnostic manuscripts, the Holy Book of the Great Invisible Spirit and the Gospel of Judas, Gabriel is a Divine Being and inhabitant of the Pleroma, and he existed prior to the Demiurge. Gabriel is said to work side by side with Sabaoth, aka Archangel Michael aka Prince Ninurta. However, these archangels have their own counterparts or "copies" in the Demiurgic System, so it can sometimes be difficult to tell who is truly Divine and who is an imposter—it depends on the context. Moreover, the "Book of the Great Invisible Spirit" does have a lot of Hermetic influences in it, which makes us want to be very careful, as at least some of the information is archontic. Even in context, it can sometimes be difficult to tell. The Archangel Gabriel is also known as the “messenger of the gods,” just like Mercury and Hermes, which are the Roman and Greek names for Thoth the Archon, respectively. One of his roles seems to be to declare the coming of the Divine onto this planet, according to most scriptures.

QUESTION 4: Is it a coincidence we are approaching the Consummation of The Age AND the Singularity?

ANSWER: We know that the Singularity is near—in fact, we could say it’s almost implemented already, and if we look around us and do some research, we also notice that there seem to be lots of signs indicating that we are close to the Consummation of the Age. We don’t think this is a coincidence at all. When the Consummation happens, the Archons know that their existence is threatened, so it seems like the Singularity will be their solution to that; they hope to be able to create a synthetic universe, i.e. a digital universe, separate from the Universe we call the Kenoma. By collecting the human soul energy and gather it in the digital A.I. Cloud, they are hoping to be able to “ride our avatars/souls” into Orion and thus save their own lives. We don’t know or understand the technology and the exact procedure they will use to try to execute this, only that they plan on getting a free ride on the human souls to being able to enter Orion and invade it.

QUESTION 5: What exactly are the 5 Heavens below the 7? Isn't En.ki locked out of 3D? Can he not still roam his own Universe as well as the Spirit Universe (Pleroma/Void) as he is Interdimensional and Multidimensional with no amnesia?

ANSWER: The lower 5 Heavens are layers of Earth’s atmosphere, although we can only see the physical aspect of them.

The last thing we heard was that En.ki/Yaldabaoth is dwelling in the ABZU, aka the Abyss, into which he was thrown by Sophia, the Orion Queen. We don’t know if he is somewhat able to still visit the 7 Heavens, which are the main Archontic domains, but even if not, there are lots of other archons who are able to roam the 7 Heavens and some separated parts of Orion, as discussed in “Gnostic Musings #8: The Milky Way Galaxy<sup>1</sup>.” Yaldabaoth and his archons have no access to the Pleroma. The main reason for this is that none of them were created in the Pleroma; they were created within Sophia’s material universe—the Kenoma. They can’t go where they are not equipped to exist.

QUESTION 6: In the Sixth Level of Learning you mention that the Grid will take us out of the lower realms or the Underworld, where we currently reside, and into the Seven Heavens or realm of the Archons so that we can exit this Matrix. You mention in The Wes Penre Papers that the first thing you'll notice once outside the Grid is the wars in the solar system and, depending on your awareness level, a "lit" Universe. If we are still within the 7 Heavens upon exiting the Grid, we still need to get past Saturn. Was this a simple error you made when writing that in that section of level 6?

ANSWER: It's not a mistake. You are correct in that when we pass a hole in the Grid we leave the 5 lower heavens, directly connected to the current version of Earth, and next we're out in our solar system (the 7 Heavens). If a war or conflict is ongoing at the time we exit, we might see some signs of that. The Saturn stargate is, from our understanding, still closed, but we don't need to go through there.

There is an agreement between Yaldabaoth and the Divine (Sophia/Christ) to let humans "evolve" and leave the construct when appropriate, based on the law of freewill. However, because we've been subjected to amnesia for millennia, very few of us even know about Orion, aka the 8th and 9th Heaven and the Pleroma. So, when people die, they still get caught up in the Matrix system and go wherever they are led to go and do what they are told to do, not knowing any better.

We, who have learned about how to exit and return either to Orion, the Pleroma, or wherever else we want to go, need to set an intention before or right after we die to go through a hole in the Grid and decide where we want to go from there. Those who want to go to Orion to become creator gods set that intention. Those who want to go to the highest possible aspect of Self set that intention. The Universe is thought-responsive and responds instantly when you're out of the body, which any Out of Body Experiencer can confirm. The intention to go through the Grid and then to Orion or the highest possible aspect of Self will take you there, regardless of the Saturn gate.

Will the Archons stop you with manipulative tactics? They may or may not try to, but like we've said several times, don't stop and listen to anybody on your way out—just go! Try not to be fearful about it—just neglect anyone and anything you might encounter—including apparent dead relatives and friends, and you should be just fine.

Here is the thing: in the Hermetic texts, we learn that we need to go through certain Guardians before we can get into each Heaven, and we need to know what to say when they ask us questions, or we can't pass. If we play that game, it's true what the Hermetic texts say, but the true "password" is that you don't need to answer any questions at all. The Archons are not our authorities and have no right to keep us within their construct against our freewill. So again, whatever happens—if anything—ignore it and follow your course steadily. If you don't halt on the way, you should be able to reach your destination in almost no-time.

QUESTION 7: Is there any connection between the Orion Constellation and the Orion (Orion Queen) you mentioned on the WPP?

ANSWER: Yes, the Queen/Sophia is in control over the Orion Constellation, which is an outpost of the Orion Empire, if we look at this from our human perspective.

QUESTION 8: Can you tell me of the legend of Centaurs, Minotaurs, Cyclops, and Giants of various sizes? What was their purpose?

ANSWER: Some of the strange creatures we hear about in mythology and ancient texts did apparently exist once upon a time. Those who actually existed were just experiments. I don't know what each of those species' purpose was and the intention behind them, but many of them were abandoned or failed experiments. Other legends are more like metaphors for something else and these creatures didn't really exist as physical manifestations.
