Hello and welcome to another Q&A session! Please submit more questions at wespenre2@gmail.com, and put Q&A in the subject line, so I won't miss your questions.

QUESTION 1: Is history, as explained in history books, correct about the last 500 years? I saw a video of Ankaraman, where he said the last deluge was 300 years ago, with good points. Especially regarding old buildings. Is this true?

MY COMMENT: This may sound crazy, but there is research out there, which is quite convincing, indicating there was a reset here on Earth only 300 years ago, approximately. It seems like a global civilization was erased at that time, and our current civilization started after that. Yes, I believe Ankaraman is right if that is what he says. Old temples and so-called "religious buildings," for example, supposed to have been built many centuries ago, were most likely built by a previous, more technologically advanced civilization, who had the capacity to build these structures, which the people of the Middle Ages did not, obviously, even though we've been told they were the once building them. These temples were not religious buildings, either, but had to do with free energy, distributed across the planet. We made them into religious temples after the last reset.

We humans have been so lied to and manipulated that it never ceases to amaze us. History that we learned in school and elsewhere is almost entirely false. After the reset, which seems to have happened about 300 years ago, a false history was created by the Controllers, and that is the history we now think is the correct one. It is not—it's all a lie. One day, I will most likely go into this a lot more...

QUESTION 2: I might be very sick and not be able to get better. I do not wish to live like this. If you ask your doctor for euthanasia, will this decision interfere with me exiting the grid? It is the doctor who will kill me (by my own choice) and I already have no reason to stay here, except being in bed all day. I hope you can answer in a way. It is very important to me, to avoid reincarnation.

MY COMMENT: I am very sorry to hear that you are suffering! I need to be brief with this answer, but I hope it still helps. Only you know how disabling your condition is and what your quality of life will be like if you continue your life. If you know you will not improve, and you are suffering, I would say you should make a decision that is well thought through and do what you feel is best.

Will it affect your ability to leave through the Grid? Not unless your vibrations are low. If you have made up your mind and feel comfortable about your decision, not making it in a very depressed state of being, and determined to leave the Matrix, I don't see it as a problem.

QUESTION 3: There was something you stated either in a Q&A or one of your Metaverse writings recently about our bodies being like a battery. That made me think about a scene from the film "The Matrix." It is when Morpheus informs Neo about "the Matrix" draining one's energies into a battery for sustenance. Is "The Matrix" a depiction of The Singularity where those who take the blue pill are more or less automatons and the rebels such as Morpheus, Trinity, Neo, et al. are like the off-gridders who want no part of the illusion?

MY COMMENT: That's one way of looking at the Matrix movies. They had a lot of truth in them—you could say it was the Controllers telling us "how it is" in a coded way and through metaphors and allegories, but as usual, mixed with half-truths. We humans are indeed batteries to the System, and with the System I mean the complete Kenoma System, i.e., the Matrix. The Archontic forces use us to electrify the System, including their technology. They feed from our soul energy and can easily do so through our ignorance. Not until we set up our boundaries, knowing what is going on, can we keep much of our energy to ourselves and use them more constructively.

Brett Stuart, who leads a team of remote viewers, made a video a few years ago called "Moksha," and it had a lot to do with how we are energizing the System with our soul energy and how we function as batteries for them. We are giving them the energy that then becomes the "false light" that the Archontic forces uses against us, and very much so in the Between Lives Area, the BLA.

QUESTION 4: Hi Wes!!! The bodies we had as Namlu'u, were they wispy etheric, like whisks of smoke? Would I be correct in that summation? I'm trying to explain to my wife what to expect when we escape these physical bodies.

MY COMMENT: The Namlu'u, aka Aryan bodies, were much less dense than our homo sapiens sapiens bodies. At the time when we were them, we existed in another density rather than dimension, but we were still 3rd Dimensional beings. So, to use your suggestion, one could argue that if you would be able to see an Aryan right now in your current body, you might consider her wispy etheric, and maybe transparent, if you would see her at all. This is just to give you an idea of the difference between them and us. But if you would take an Aryan body now, in Orion, you would experience yourself and your environment just as physical as you are now. Also, the Aryans were gigantic in stature compared to us—we are like ants compared with the Aryans of Gaia.

QUESTION 5: I heard about "work on yourself and raise your vibration". What difference does it really make if one "raises their vibration"? This "raising your vibration" has always sounded like new-age to me, which is also constructed to keep people in the grid.

I'm not using this an excuse to be a "bad person," but raising our vibration within the grid is a relative term and perhaps even an oxymoron.

Plus, let's say hypothetically, someone is horrendously trafficked and controlled thru, say, drug addiction.

If that person ended up speaking to someone about exiting the grid, and this made sense to them, they would be able to exit in theory, correct?

MY COMMENT: If we want to exit through the Grid and leave this density behind, we need to raise our vibrations. It's nothing esoteric or new-agey about it. In the Universe, everything is energy and vibration (energy in motion). A rock can't float on the surface of the ocean because it's of a slower vibration than the water, so it sinks to the bottom.

If we leave the Kenoma/Matrix, we will enter a less dense universe, and to be able to function energetically in that universe, we need to vibrate faster than we did while stuck in the Kenoma and on Earth. To begin with, we will not be able to leave if we keep vibrating on the level of the Kenoma and that of the Grid. Our vibrations have slowed down in this construct over time through manipulation, solid belief systems, and our own rigidity, stubbornness, and unwillingness to change and be open to possibilities. We have molded ourselves in this reality, and we have become one with the lower vibrations here. That's one of the things that really keeps us trapped if we want to use that term.

So, the only way out is the way through, and the way through is an increase in vibration—more Knowledge, leading to Gnosis, and more compassion, empathy, and love.
