Welcome to a new Q&A Session. While researching and wrapping up things, such as the Singularity Series, I will post this one in the meantime. Please don't hesitate to send in more questions to wespenre2@gmail.com, and put Q&A in the subject line, so I won't miss them. You can ask more than one question if you like.

QUESTION 1: I still believe the Wes Penre Papers [WPP] are the closest to the truth my heart has ever felt; so, thank you for all your work.

If someone is not vaccinated and forced to have a blood transfusion for their health, assuming the blood had vaccination, does that mean my spirit is doomed and now I can be controlled by the archons and unwillingly stuck in the singularity. I have been so sad since being given the transfusion; I told the doctors I preferred death. My family and the doctors told me to get the transfusion. I feel so betrayed, and can I still go through the grid into Orion upon the end of my life span, with someone else's blood flowing inside me?

MY COMMENT: Thanks for bringing this up. When I read your question, I see a person who is still very eager to leave this Construct. Yes, you got a transfusion from a vaccinated person, apparently, which means that you have some of that person's personality/soul energy embedded in your bloodstream, but regardless, are you still willing to leave, or are you pacified and have lost your purpose to leave? Going on your question, I see no signs of the latter. Therefore, you should be perfectly okay to leave.

It's only your physical body that hosts the other person's soul energy (soul fires), but so long as you have the purpose to leave, you don't need to worry.

QUESTION 2: I recently saw a very gifted healer, at least I felt something powerful during my session, which has lingered in a positive way for me. She was aware of the false light at death and agreed it's a reincarnation trap. I told her about your work and going through the grid to Orion at death. She said meditate on going to the void and or go to the void in meditation while here in this 3D world and when we die, we will automatically go there and once there we will be creator gods. She also said, which others have said, that Orion is where the bad guys En.ki and Marduk, who are Reptilians, are from, and Orion is basically the bad guy place filled with bad Reptilians. So, I am asking, why do so many people say this about Orion being the home of bad Reptilians? She is very close in her thinking to what you talk about, but not on the part of going to Orion,. but definitely not going into the light 100%.

MY COMMENT: It sounds like, when I read your question, that the healer is a well-meaning person. Yes, Orion has a bad reputation among UFO researchers. Orion has become the scapegoat for "bad ETs," and people in this field equate the Orions and the Dracos to all evil they can think of.

Keep in mind that in this Construct, truth is rare and hard to find. Almost everything that might be to our benefit is stigmatized or dramatized. I can't say for sure, but I think Orion's bad reputation might come from a misunderstanding of the RA Material, channeled by Carla Rueckert in the early 1980s. The RA people were talking about the Orion Group being of a negative density. But who were/are the Orion Group? Where does En.ki come from? Orion. Where do the Sirians and the Archons come from? Orion. They all originate in Orion, but are now controlling our own Matrix, and us humans, as well. It's a small rebel group of Orions the RA people were referring to.

Also, Lyssa Royale, another channeler, got messages from her entities that Orions were warlike. But who were the channeled entities? Did they have humanity's best interests in mind, or could it be they inverted the truth?

QUESTION 3: Some people think there is something up with Elon Musk, and one person even went so far as to say that Elon Musk is Enki in his most current incarnation. I don't think this is the case, but I do believe Elon Musk has Enki's blood flowing through his veins. So, what do you think? It is being said that Elon is a covert narcissist and extremely egotistical. I know you mentioned in the WPP that there are a number of assailants claiming that they can house the soul/spirit/mind of En.ki/Yaldabaoth and Ereshkigal respectively, so what do you think about his incarnation in current times?

MY COMMENT: Elon Musk is a two-faced person, regardless of who he is otherwise. On one hand, he says he is against the A.I. agenda and the Singularity, and on the other hand he says that if we can't fight them, let's join them, but in our "own way." He is presenting himself as a person of the people for the people, who has our best interest in mind. Still, he sends up satellites and want us to be brain chipped.

As always, don't listen to what these people say. Instead, look at what they are doing.

If En.ki, Ereshkigal, and the other Overlords are incarnated today, I wouldn't know who they are. It would be difficult to say for sure because many humans act just like the Archons and their ET Minions.

QUESTION 4: Doing research or as a researcher, you are bound to come across "The Dulce Wars." Are there any solutions, plans or efforts to rescue these poor men women and children being held captive at Dulce Base to this very day? I have a memory swipe, but I have this feeling that this has all happened before on Tiamat/Earth 13,000 years ago and further back. It's as if history is repeating itself. Can this be chocked up as a very sad situation in which nothing can be done?

MY COMMENT: Yes, I am aware of the Dulce Wars and the scientist, Phillip Schneider, who later committed suicide (some say he was murdered). For those who are not familiar with this, I will put a link in the Description Box, if you're watching this on YouTube, or as a footnote in the Transcript¹ if you're watching it at wespenrevideos.com.

I was quite intrigued by this story when it came out and Schneider told his story in public about the aliens whom they fought against underground at the Dulce base. He also showed the body injuries he suffered during the conflict.

However, I am no longer so sure that what Schneider said happened was what really happened. I do think he believed it, though. Information has come out that Schneider was an MK-ULTRA victim, and if this is true, they can have implanted any story into his mind, and he'll believe it. Was Phillip Schneider subjected to mind-control? I can't answer that with any certainty, but I have come to realize that very little that has to do with alien interference is true. We hear a lot about it these days because of the Internet, and I am not saying it's all false, but there is a lot of military disinformation, and MK-ULTRA victims are used to spread it because they are convincing. They believe in their own stories.

QUESTION 5: According to one of your emails with Jarl Vidar in the first level of learning, Jarl claimed that Tolkien was granted access to visit the inner earth. Do you still think this is true?

After all, it is interesting that Tolkien named his world “Middle Earth.”

MY COMMENT: It’s impossible for me to say, but after having read a lot of Tolkien’s own notes and letters during his lifetime, I doubt he was taken to the Inner Earth. Tolkien was “obsessed” with mythology—particularly Nordic and Icelandic mythology—and that’s where he got most of his inspiration from for his Middle Earth. Even so when it comes to the underground adventures in The Lord of the Rings and in The Hobbit. Tolkien considered England not having any great mythology of its own, like the Scandinavians do, so he wanted to create such a mythology for the future, according to an interview he did back in the late 50s or early 60s.

Also, the term Middle Earth comes from Nordic mythology, where the realm where humans roam is called Midgård. In the Swedish translation of The Lord of the Rings by Åke Ohlmarks, Middle Earth is named Midgård, just like in the original mythology.
