Thank you for your questions over the last few weeks. I still have questions left to include in the next Q&A, but please also send more questions to wespenre2@gmail.com, and put Q&A in the subject line.

Here are today's questions and comments:

QUESTION 1: Is the following part about karma still valid? In the next incarnation, do we still need to take the consequences of what we have done in this incarnation?

Karma is a universal law and is in effect to enhance the growth of the spirit. We live in a Free Will Universe where you are totally free to do and experience whatever you want, but what you do is coming back to you. This means that if you dedicate yourself to enhancing the spiritual growth of self and others, your karma will reflect that, and the universe pays your back in a currency that helps you grow. However, if you dedicate your life to theft, murder, lying, cheating, controlling others and whatnot, those kinds of energy are going to hit you back, and you will eventually, in the same lifetime, or in another, experience the other side of the coin, where someone steals from you, deceives you, and even kills you.

MY COMMENT: No, this is no longer correct. It was included in the Wes Penre Papers (WPP), the 4th Level of Learning, and since then, after having connected more dots, I know this is not correct. The karma discussed above is the kind of karma the Invader force from within this Construct want us to believe in. When we die and the soul gets to the recycling center (called the Between Lives Area, or the BLA for short, in the WPP), we get a life review, and the Lords of Karma (the BLA workers) convince us that we need to go back to Earth and work on our so-called karma. They want us to believe that we need to experience the other side of the coin if we have been abusive, or otherwise harmful to people or animals. It is based on that Earth is a school, and we learn from pain and suffering. Nothing could be further from the truth. This is no school—it's a prison, and the souls who are stuck here in the reincarnation cycle are prisoners of war from the War of the Titans, when Tiamat was destroyed. The Lords of Karma, aka the Archons, the Khan Kings, and the Sirian Alliance want us to stay in this trap we call the Matrix as long as possible, so they can feed from our soul energy and to later use us in a war against Orion. Karma, as it is used in the BLA on us is a big lie, and we should instead concentrate on not going through the Tunnel of Light after death and aim at exiting through the Grid, as explained elsewhere in the WPP and in numerous videos and articles that I've created.

QUESTION 2: About the Patrix Quarantine: Is the grid quarantined by Orion, meaning Enki and others can't get out into the KHAA?

MY COMMENT: The Grid was set up by the Invader Force, aka the Khan Kings and the Sirian Alliance. It is held together with technology and comprises human soul energy and all the collective soul memories, including common and individual beliefs, religions, and other misnomers we have been taught by the Invaders. It is there to keep us within the Matrix and to keep the Orion Universe out. This also, to a large degree, imprisoned the Invaders, but they can leave the Matrix and travel into some parts of the KHAA/Orion in their hollowed-out asteroids, using portals and stargates that we humans keep functional by giving the Invaders our soul energy from unwittingly being their puppets on a string. Through these portals, the Invaders can visit their own conquered star systems in the KHAA, but not the rest of Orion, from which they are banned.

These portals and stargates can also be used to let selected souls in and out of the solar system and the Earth.

En.ki and Marduk are the two who are mainly in charge of keeping the Quarantine, aka the Grid, in place.

QUESTION 3: How does one understand that one is a Spirited Soul?

MY COMMENT: Spirited souls have essentially a wide range of emotions, often possessing vivid imagination, which is meant for us to use as Creator Gods. They also possess great curiosity to try to find out who they are, where they are, what they are doing here, and where they are going. Spirited souls are essentially very empathetic and compassionate, and they often feel lonely, like outsiders in this world, where most people, from what it seems, are not spirited. Sometimes, a spirited soul feels like they are aliens here on Earth and don't fit in the least. And they would be right because this is not our world.

QUESTION 4: If one of the parents is an artificial soul, can their children still be Spirited Souls?

MY COMMENT: The answer is yes. Once a spirited soul, always a spirited soul. If you're a spirited soul, you have had quite a few incarnations here on Earth, and I am sure you have had both spirited and non-spirited parents over the millennia.

QUESTION 4: Why is there always something stopping me from developing and awakening? Once I start awakening spiritually, something bad in the outside world happens to me. Examples are: Getting trapped by a narcissist, getting very ill, becoming part of a scandal, losing your job for no reason, sudden antisocial/terrible behaviour from loved ones, etc. It's not always fire burning deadwood. Is there a reason why this happens to people? Or is it just bad karma?

MY COMMENT: There can be many reasons for this, but "bad karma" is not one of them, unless we blindly believe in karma and make karma happen, and it's our own making (see my comment to Question #1). We often stop ourselves, unknowingly, because of our subconscious, reactive mind. Most people are thinking thoughts throughout the day that are counter-productive and "negative" when it comes to the soul's development. This is because of trauma we have been subjected to, and negative emotions and thoughts build up in our subconscious. Because the Universe, even here in the Matrix, is thought-responsive, the thoughts we think easily become intentions, and the Universe then works on fulfilling these intentions. We don't realize that these intentions sometimes are negative and stop us rather than enhance our development.

There are two very important things to do to break the cycles you're talking about: 1) Education. Educate yourself in all areas in which you have problems (such as being pulled in by narcissists). Now, with the Internet available to us, we have access to so much information and can therefore educate ourselves, so we don't fall into the same traps again. And 2) You need to work on yourself if you don't do it already, doing so-called "shadow work." You need to heal your trauma wounds to the best of your ability, whether you do it alone, with a very trusted friend, a therapist, or in some other way. But you first need to educate yourself on narcissism, trauma bond, and codependency, until you really understand these concepts.

It's impossible to heal all emotional wounds we have accumulated, but we can learn to override them. At least, that is what has worked best for me.

On the screen, you now see the URL to a video that hopefully can be very helpful in the healing process. It tells you how to reprogram yourself, so you become much more secure and can set up boundaries more easily. This has helped me enormously.<sup>1</sup> You can pause the video here and write down the URL, or you can go to the transcript to this video (see the Description box below the video) and click on the link in the footnote.

I hope this can be to some help!

QUESTION 5: Is there any differences between The Archons, The Annunaki and The Alien Invader Force (AIF) that you coined in your papers? Are they all the same group or are they one and the same?

MY COMMENT: To some degree, I differentiate between them. I listed the different races in a video. You can find this video on my Bitchute channel—it's one of the first videos on the channel (at the bottom), and it's called, "Different Star Races."

The Archons are only mentioned in the Gnostic texts, and they overlap with the beings in the WPP to some degree. Yaldabaoth in the Gnostic texts would be equivalent to En.ki, and Sabaoth would correspond well with Ninurta, aka Prince En.lil. Sophia would be the Queen of Orion. Archon means "ruler" in Greek. In some cases, the WPP and the Gnostic texts complement each other, but in most cases they don't—at least not in the way they were written down. More about that in a separate video in the near future. So, I suggest reading the Gnostic texts to compare if you're interested.

The Anunnaki are those who came down from Heaven—mostly being a general term for beings who were here in the past—both Invaders and those from Orion.

The Alien Invader Force are the Khan Kings, i.e., the Sirians, the Sirian Alliance, aka the star races or star beings from other star systems who collaborate with the Khan Kings and were part of Lucifer's Rebellion. Then we have the term "The Invaders" or "The Overlords," who denote all the invader beings put under one umbrella.

Yes, they all work together toward the same goal, i.e., the development of A.I. and the Singularity, and to ultimately use human souls to be able to escape from the Matrix and conquer Orion. However, there are almost always friction between factions of these ET groups because they can't agree upon how to proceed to reach their targets and goals.

QUESTION 6: Considering our liberation from the earth matrix, there will be a set of goals that should be achieved by the followers of your research and eventually the way to reach them, while the great reset doesn't happen and there is still some freedom in the western countries. Is that so?

MY COMMENT: Yes. 1) We need to educate ourselves about the situation we're in, and I suggest reading the Wes Penre Papers at wespenre.com. 2) We need to be completely determined that we want to leave this Matrix through a hole in the Grid and enter the Orion Universe outside—the Orion Universe being the Greater Universe outside our Matrix. Not to be confused with the Orion Constellation, the Reptilians, or the Orion Group; the latter being En.ki and some of his rebels. 3) We preferably need to do shadow work, so we are in as good emotional shape as possible when we enter Orion. 4) We need to get rid of all attachments to this world, so when we die, we don't feel we need to return to Earth because we have emotional attachments or other kinds of attachments. We need to work on getting rid of those. 5) When we die, we look "above" us, with the dead body as a reference, until we spot the Grid. We look for a hole and think ourselves going through the hole. The Universe is thought-responsive, so in the next moment, you will be outside. Do NOT stop and communicate with anyone in the astral on your way out, regardless of who it might be, including dead relatives or pets. These are distractions and projections, and usually not the real deal. And in the few cases they might be, you still unfortunately need to neglect them, or you will most likely be trapped again and sent into the Tunnel of Light and recycled once more with amnesia.

QUESTION 7: What's the difference between Tiamat and Gaia?

MY COMMENT: Tiamat was the original planet we, the spirited humans, i.e., the Namlu'u or the Aryans, lived on during the original Experiment. This planet, which is now the asteroid belt between Mars and Jupiter, was nuked during a cosmic war, and everybody died. Some Aryan souls were hijacked by the Invader Force and were taken as hostages used as slaves to the Invaders. These Aryan are us who are living on Earth now. We are still slaves up to this day.

After the war, En.ki and his scientists took a chunk of the gigantic Tiamat and created Earth. This chunk of the original planet was terraformed and repopulated. En.ki set up a Firmament and a Dome to keep the cosmic waters out and separated them from the lower waters we see here on Earth, such as rivers, lakes, seas, and oceans.

Later, Noah's Flood happened, and after that, when En.ki once again had terraformed the planetary rock we live on, he created the Grid.

It is believed by some that what we know as Earth is still just a fraction of a flattish chunk of Tiamat, and Earth is a part of a larger landmass, outside the Earth Construct, and this greater landmass is sometimes called Gaia. Not everybody agrees with this, of course, so everybody needs to do their own research.
