The year 2022 has been a strange year in many, many ways, and so much has happened in my personal life. Early in the year, I moved away from the U.S. to Europe, had to work on the immigration part for quite a while, which took time, other things happened after that, which I needed to attend to, and now I'm having surgery—nothing serious, but I might be "out of it" for a short time. Because of all this, I have not been able to concentrate as much on research and writing as I would have liked to do.

However, I do not want to reduce my outflow—I want to increase it! So, I've been concentrating on restructuring my work schedule, so I can work more efficiently in the near future and get more done long-term. I want to finish Book 2 of my fantasy trilogy and publish it before the end of the year, which seems to be doable, unless anything comes in the way. Then, starting in January 2023, I plan to continue writing the final book in the trilogy but also start writing a non-fictional book I've had in my head for a while, and of course it has to do with the Wes Penre Papers, WPP material and additional research, which are topics many are interested in. But not only that—this upcoming book is on topics everybody who has followed my work need to know, and this is not an advertisement trick on my part—I'm serious.

So, I want to alternate between writing on the 3rd novel and the “Orion Book” simultaneously (“The Orion Book” being the work title for the non-fictional book), and maybe reduce videos to one every 1 1/2 weeks or 2 weeks or so, instead of every weekend. And of course, I will participate in the forum at wespenreboards.com, and on Telegram for Patrons who have signed up for it.

This will keep me busy, but I love it. These things are my passions, and I would not feel complete if I couldn't do it. So, I will schedule my days better, starting in January, to get these things done. I want to dedicate more of my time to writing, so there will most likely be more books after the Orion book. I will dedicate myself to both fiction and non-fiction from hereon.

The “Orion Book” will include multiple topics, and it will include many new things that have not yet been discussed in public. Some of it has been touched on and partly discussed on the forum in the Guest section and in the Patreon sections. I want my writing to be mainly concentrated on the Exit through the Grid, rather than something of less significance—that's how I feel right now, keeping in mind everything that's going on around us in the world and beyond. Those who really want to leave this Matrix need to be as well prepared as possible.

On Monday, October 17, I will have my surgery, so I might not be able to release new videos until after the recovery phase. In the meantime, also feel free to send in more questions to the Q&A Sessions at wespenre2@gmail.com.

If you want to support my work and making it possible for me to execute my new plan in 2023, please sign up on Patreon at patreon.com/wespenre. The URL will also be in the transcript, which you can read or download below this video by clicking on the link under the PDF icon.

Thank you, dear friends, for your attention and your interest in my work. I will talk to you soon. Bye for now...
