God day, dear friends! As many of you might know, I have just posted Book 2 in my novel trilogy, called “The Underworld” on Amazon, and I am currently writing on Book 3, which is the last in the trilogy, and at the same time, I’m writing on the “Orion Book” (work title), which I hope will be interesting. Therefore, I have had limited time to make videos. Because I will be writing on two books, I must reduce the number of videos, unfortunately, and might post one every second week or so, and mostly Q&As for now. So, please send more questions to wespenre2@gmail.com and put Q&A in the subject line. Thanks a lot!

Question 1: There are many unseen deceased human beings who coexist alongside living humans. So, it's safe to assume that they successfully avoided the white light trap and continue to dwell amongst the living.

If these beings can listen and watch us tell other living beings about the holes in the grid and how to successfully escape the matrix, why aren't they realizing this and escaping the matrix? I realize some of these beings may have strong earthly attachments that keep them here but is there another reason as to why they cannot escape despite hearing the living talk about the holes in the grid?

Comment: The so-called “ghosts,” hovering close to Earth after death are always very traumatized souls—usually those who were unaware of life after death, perhaps die in a war, or were brutally murdered. Some might have died in a sudden accident and don’t understand they are dead. Others cling onto the world because of attachments. None of these souls is vibrating high enough to even consider something like the Grid—it’s too scary. They are not even willing to consider the Tunnel of Light. They are stuck souls that need help from the Matrix workers to be guided into the Tunnel of Light or to some rehab center in the afterlife. They are too stuck in the Matrix to consider exiting.

Question 2: If before the flood there was no grid and no Between Lives area (BLA), why did humans just not return to Orion when the Overlords arrived? Also, how was it after the flood Enki managed to trap the Namlu'us in the bodies we now possess and add amnesia? I read WPP Levels 1 and 2.

Comment: I'm sorry to be so short here, but these questions will be properly addressed in my new Orion book that I'm writing on. It's too much to cover in a Q&A, I'm afraid. But the Orion book will probably be published somewhere during the first half of 2023.

Question 3: This question is in three parts: a) If you escape through the grid and go to Orion, can you still "see" what's happening here on earth? Can you come as a spirit and visit your relatives? Can you communicate with your relatives through a psychic medium? Can you then choose to reincarnate again here on Earth?

Comment: Because of the Grid, you can't see what happens on Earth once you are in Orion. And I would not recommend coming back here because you will be trapped again, and the exiting would have been in vain, and you may not get a second chance. Also, most likely, your relatives have already moved on. They are most likely reincarnated again with amnesia and have a new life and a new personality. If they are still in the astral, they might be in a "rest area," and they won't communicate with someone outside of there.

b) This year I had a few sessions with a medium who communicated messages from deceased relatives. The information was solid, only me and the deceased relative could have known about it. My question is: was I communicating with the deceased relative or with the AIF who was pretending to be a family member?

Comment: The problem is, how do we know they are deceased relatives? I don't want to discourage you, but there are many tricksters in the astral, and all they need to do is to read your DNA and connect to the Akashic Records of the Matrix, which will give you all the details of the deceased—even to the extent that the so-called deceased can answer questions based on how they would have answered them in real life. The relative in question has most likely moved on. On rare occasions, there may be a genuine connection, but it's very uncommon.

c) How do you know there is a Grid and that there are holes in it?

Comment: See the URL on the screen or click on it in the transcript and read more about the Grid: <https://wespenrevideos.com/category/exiting-the-grid/>. If you are uncertain whether it exists, I would say you could take the chance. What do you have to lose? If it wouldn't be there, reincarnation is always an option. What I mean is, you'll see when you get there.

Question 4: What are your thoughts on the Spiritual effects of getting a vasectomy? Would it interfere with sex magick?

Comment: I highly doubt there are any spiritual effects. There shouldn't be any significant side effects at all, except you can't have children, of course. I have heard that there might be a slightly higher risk for prostate cancer later in life after a vasectomy, but whether this is really true, I don't know.

Question 5: I recently watched the movie "Ghost" (for the umpteenth time) and I noticed something remarkable. When the main character is murdered at the beginning of the film there is a stream of bright light that he almost runs to but stops (or the film would have ended if he went into the light). Also, the scene at the hospital where a patient dies on the operating table, and that soul goes directly into the light. Does the light at the tunnel come at you this fast when you die? Do you really have to act this super-fast to make a decision, or was that for a dramatic effect in the movie?

Comment: You will have time to make your own decision after you die, but as I've said elsewhere, I would still not linger in the astral because it's so deceptive. Set a clear intention and think yourself outside the Grid as soon as you can after body death. That's my advice.

Question 6: Who is the Anti-Christ? Is it a person or concept? I do not accept Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior and I must save myself. I have been told because of this that I am the Anti-Christ; so is it more of this or more of the Anti-Christ being a person? Can it be both?

Comment: The Anti-Christ is anyone or anything that is in opposition to Christ. It's Christ's opposite. Some say all so-called "non-believers" are the Anti-Christ, but I can't see that, unless they are actively against Christ. Only if you are on the other side of the spectrum and consciously or subconsciously are countering Christ could you say you are the Anti-Christ. The “Devil,” for example, would be the Anti-Christ, but also someone who practices Satanism. That’s my view on it.

Question 7: They say fate and destiny are not set in stone and we have free will. I certainly believed that. However, I recently came to the realization that it may in fact be true that fate and destiny are in some ways meant for you to experience. I’ve had certain events in my life that keep cropping up over and over again when I least expected them. Yes, I could easily ignore them, but the temptation is too great and important for me to ignore. Even if I did ignore them, they will return at some other juncture in my life. Believe me, it has happened! Is this really true then about fate and/or destiny Wes?

Comment: When it comes to humanity, I do not believe in fate but in destiny. Thus, the Tables of Destiny I wrote about in the Wes Penre Papers (WPP). We are seriously affected by the energies of the Heavens, the so-called “fixed stars,” i.e., the star constellations and the celestial bodies (planets etc.). Astrology does have an impact on us, and it matters when we were born. That will determine our destiny in that lifetime. But we do have limited freewill in this construct, and we can change our destiny by making changes in our lives that put us on another path. If we do not make many changes in life, I would say we are following our destiny, good and bad, and we are not making much progress. Breaking patterns is usually a good thing—especially when these patterns don’t benefit us. I will bring up this subject in more detail in my upcoming Orion book, as well.
