

Q&A Session #31, 2025
by Wes Penre, October 23, 2025

Welcome, and thank you for your questions! Please send more to wespenre2@gmail.com, including 'Q&A' in the subject line, so I don't miss your email.

Please keep your questions as brief as possible. I receive too many lengthy emails, and I've noticed that I hesitate to include some of them because I don't have the time to condense them. Please keep your response as brief as possible. I understand that sometimes, keeping it short is not an option to convey your message. Just doing your best is good enough.

To explore any of my books, please visit Amazon.com, where you can find a collection of all my titles. Books are now translated into Spanish, German, Russian, and Estonian by different publishers, including Amazon.

For more details, please follow this link: <https://wespenrevideos.com/2024/08/28/wes-penre-books-published-in-multiple-languages/>.

German translations are also available on Amazon.de, which can help save on shipping costs if you're in Germany. This will be updated once a newly translated book is published anywhere.

Please note: If the question(s) you submit is/are omitted, it's usually for two reasons: there was no space to include all questions that week, so keep an eye open for one of the following Q&As. Alternatively, and for some reason, the question(s) did not fit the hallmark for a Q&A—perhaps too broad or complex to answer in this format. It's never because I think a question is “stupid.”

Unfortunately, I don't have time to watch videos that people sometimes send me as part of the question. Instead, please take the part of the video that relates to the question and write that into the question. Also, please refrain from sending websites or lengthy PDF files I don't have time to read. When I receive these attachments and links, I must automatically disregard these questions unless I can comment on them without having to attend to the attachments.

Question #1: Hi Wes, what do you make of all the talk of Muslims taking over the world, the UK, Michigan in the US, and many other places in the world, along with holding high places in office? Is this connected to Marduk / Enki... does this have anything to do with the Singularity?

Comment: First, I must stress that, from my own perspective, many Muslims are just “regular people,” with people’s usual flaws and strengths. However, there is a part of their religion, as we know, which is very violent—the extremists. Many countries are flooded with Muslims, and it’s not a coincidence since most governments are working together on a higher level.

We will most likely see that the Muslims have sleeper cells within each affected country (and more countries will be affected). Reacting to a certain signal, they will start acting out violently toward the native population in the big cities, including killing, raping, and maiming. They will apply their Jihad card as well, of course. They will call us infidels and create a religious war from within many countries, probably starting in Europe.

Although far from all Muslims will be involved in this, governments and people in general will declare war on the Muslims, and there will be a whole tumult. People will flee from their homes in the big cities into “15-minute cities” that governments will provide and have fully prepared by then. That’s where they want us, because that’s where all the nanotechnology is prepared for us. There, we connect with the Cloud, which, of course, is what the Singularity is all about. And those who don’t move into these cities will be “left behind.” It’s like with Windows 10. The support for the operating system has ceased. This means people can still use Windows 10, but after x number of years, it’s no longer compatible with the increasing technology, and their computers are rendered useless unless they upgrade.

The "Muslim invasion" is not the EL-ites' only card, but it seems to be one of the major cards, stirring up the most tumult. Killing two birds with one stone, this inside attack will kill off many people as well as bring a large group of the native population into the 15-minute cities. Guilty and innocent Muslims alike will be killed in the process, as people will blame the innocent Muslims, as well as the extremists.

I can't say for sure this will all happen, but to me, it's quite a possible scenario.

Question #2: Hope all is still well with you. I appreciate your answer to my question about soul vs. spirit.

Unfortunately, it left me with another question in Session 26, 2025.

You ended your answer mentioning archonic DNA. How does one limit the interference of archonic DNA, as well as seek the return and growth of our own true homo sapiens DNA, including its expansion if possible?

Comment: You are born with a certain DNA, and that part, we can do nothing about. But if you remember what I have discussed on earlier occasions, we use only about 4% of our DNA—the rest is considered junk DNA (though it's actually the DNA that brings you out of the Matrix).

How do you connect to the dormant DNA? You continue learning about yourself, your environment, and the Spirit Realm, which reconnects you with your Oversoul/Spirit, all of which you are already working on. Every time you learn something that's outside Matrix control, you activate more of your DNA. Our task is to activate as much of it as possible in our lives, so we are all ready to exit through the Grid. After leaving, the rest of our DNA will, more or less, activate.

Question #3: What is the difference between cloning and emanation in a spiritual or metaphysical sense? In other words, how does an artificial copy or replication — something that imitates life but lacks a true connection to Source — differ from a genuine emanation, which flows directly from the Source as a living extension of divine consciousness?

What becomes of an emanation as it descends farther from the Source — does it lose its original purity or consciousness?

Comment: Cloning can mean one of three things: 1) genetic tinkering, where the Archons and their engineers (human and archontic) copy the physical body of a person, 2) cloning of our minds, and 3) Spiritual cloning, also called emanation. All three are in practice.

We know cloning best from what we've learned about cloning celebrities and politicians.

The cloning of minds might make us think about what the EL-ites do when they gather our thoughts and actions into the AI Cloud and copy us in that sense. We can't get away from that very easily, as long as we use any electronics—even our TV.

Spiritual cloning would be equivalent to emanation, as I've talked about in my two most recent books, a term used in the Nag Hammadi Gnostic texts. It is when the Spirit (you) shares a part of herself with her offspring, so the offspring also become "spirited." Mothers do it all the time when they give birth to a child, but among star races, this is being done routinely, since there is no sexual reproduction anywhere, except on Earth.

Star beings/races receive their Spirit from Sophia, and they must develop to become Creator Gods, since Sophia has "fallen" and has a degree of amnesia. They pick up the Spirit around them and are not direct "sunbeams" from the Aeon Sophia, whereas we, of Geradamas, have a straight link to that Aeon. We are Creator Gods to begin with because we ARE Geradamas, who in turn is the Aeon in the Pleroma who possesses all abilities of the other Aeons combined, and more. The star beings can never learn above Sophia's level, which is not a bad thing, but they are not Geradamas. On top of that, they are of lesser strength than Sophia, since Sophia's Spirit in the physical universe is lesser than the combination of herself in the 9th Heaven. Therefore, they must learn one thing at a time until they can become skilled Creator Gods themselves.

Question #4: If we remain in the middle of duality — without going to either extreme — does that mean we are outside the hologram or matrix? Is that the right way to live in this hologram world?

Comment: As long as we live in any physical universe we know of (the Matrix, Orion, and potentially, the 9th Heaven, the Greater Universe), there is duality. That's an essential component of the physical realms. We need to enter the pure Spirit Realm to experience non-duality. We attribute masculine and feminine to Aeons in the Pleroma, but that is not a gender thing—one helps complete the other. They are not opposites.

Question #5: You seem to have predicted all of the things happening now, and they seem to be happening like you predicted.

When AI wasn't a thing, I came to understand it from you and what it would lead to.

Can you help explain how you knew this, and also what the long-term plan is? You mentioned making humans Cyborgs etc. Really need to understand that.

Comment: I knew it back then because the EL-ite openly discussed it publicly. In particular, Dr. Raymond Kurzweil, a major promoter of the Singularity. He wrote a book decades ago called "The Singularity is Near," where he spills the beans but twists them into something positive (the usual inversion these people work with). I just had to go from there and continue my research, and it became self-evident where this was leading.

After that, I got in touch with my Contact, and from him I learned where all this was leading. It was not only to trap us in a Cloud to keep us under better control; it was to manipulate us to invade Orion on behalf of the Archons/Sirians. That is what the Work of the Ages is on the highest levels.
