Welcome, and thank you for your questions! Please send more to wespenre2@gmail.com, including 'Q&A' in the subject line, so I don't miss your email.

Please keep your questions as brief as possible. I receive too many lengthy emails, and I've noticed that I hesitate to include some of them because I don't have the time to condense them. Please keep your response as brief as possible. I understand that sometimes keeping it short isn't an option for conveying your message. Just doing your best is good enough.

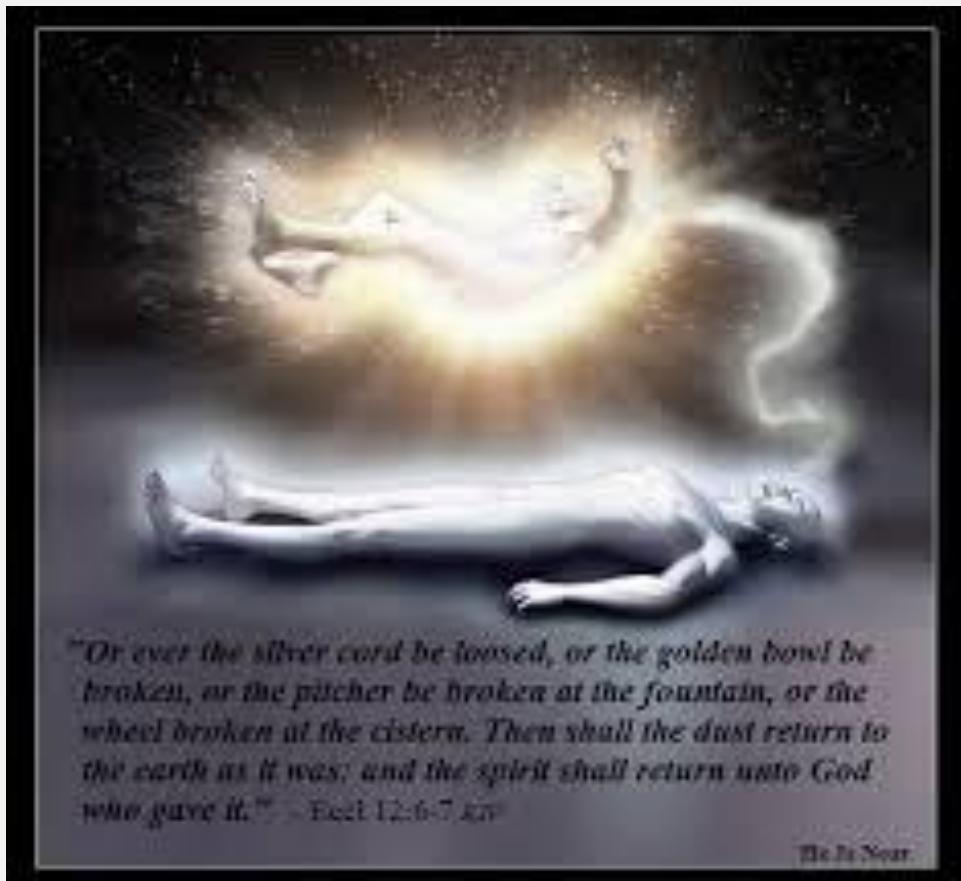

To explore any of my books, please visit Amazon.com, where you can find a collection of all my titles. Books are now translated into Spanish, German, Russian, and Estonian by different publishers, including Amazon.

For more details, please follow this link: <https://wespenrevideos.com/2024/08/28/wes-penre-books-published-in-multiple-languages/>.

German translations are also available on Amazon.de, which can help save on shipping costs if you're in Germany. This will be updated once a newly translated book is published anywhere.

Please note: If the question(s) you submit is/are omitted, it's usually for two reasons: there was no space to include all questions that week, so keep an eye open for one of the following Q&As. Alternatively, and for some reason, the question(s) did not fit the hallmark for a Q&A—perhaps too broad or complex to answer in this format. It's never because I think a question is "stupid."

Unfortunately, I don't have time to watch videos that people sometimes send me as part of the question. Instead, please take the part of the video that relates to the question and write that into the question. Also, please refrain from sending websites or lengthy PDF files I don't have time to read. When I receive these attachments and links, I must automatically disregard these questions unless I can comment on them without having to attend to the attachments.

Question #1: If we are spiritually powerful and can even manifest our thoughts in the astral plane, why couldn't we just focus our thoughts towards the silver cord and destroy it, thereby freeing ourselves?

Comment: It's not the soul that is "all-powerful," since it's trapped inside a soul container and a dense physical body at the same time. I can't sit here, for example, and just think the silver cord to disappear (which also means I die). And there is a mechanism that usually stops us from committing suicide, and there's a good reason for it, too. We are not here only to escape. While we're here, we need to achieve Gnosis—something I've stressed in my last two books. Without Gnosis, the soul will still be trapped in one or another physical realm, even if it does not reincarnate again. Only Gnosis will send the soul to its final destination, whether there is a Divine Spirit attached or not.

Exiting the body prematurely is a bad idea, and Spirit knows this. It's only here on Earth, in our physical 3-D bodies we can obtain Gnosis. If we don't do it here, there's nowhere else to do it. So, this is our opportunity—we'll take it or leave it. There's no right or wrong in that sense—just resonance and a soul choice.

This will be covered in the deepest of depths in the book I just started writing, currently titled, “Navigating the Nanoverse and Beyond.”

Question #2: You have written that when we are in the astral plane, our memory fades over a period of time. If that is true, then how do these so-called ascended masters that dwell in the astral plane retain their memories?

Comment: It's because not all souls have the same destination. Everybody who usually reads my Q&As is aware that most souls are recycled. These are normally the ones whose memories are erased in the astral and the recycling center. But each soul goes where it resonates, based on what they have learned during their lifetime on Earth. So, if a soul no longer resonates with the recycling process, it might be time for them to go to the next archontic Heaven. This is what New Age calls “ascension,” but they don't know it's still archontic.

Then there are those who have “graduated from the lower Kenoma (the 7 Heavens/7 Dimensions) and go to Orion, where the Greater Universe is. This is where the Ascended Masters are, and from there, they can communicate with humans who are still incarnated on Earth. This is why they call themselves “advanced humans” or “humans in the future.” That's exactly what they are. That's what will happen to many of those who don't go to the Pleroma but stay in Orion. The Ascended Masters are already there, so they can truly say they are (like) us in the future.

This is another topic I will go deeply into in the upcoming book—and I mean deeply.

Question #3: Dear Wes, can you explain why the Sixth Level of Learning is no longer included or has been taken down?

Comment: Yes, the Sixth Level of Learning was on my website, wespenre.com, for a while, but I had to take it down. It was all about the Gnostic texts, but I co-wrote that level with Ariel Glad. When she and I broke up, she no longer wanted her articles to remain on the website, so her contribution was removed. It left the level incomplete and incoherent, so I took it down. However, in retrospect, that was not a bad idea, since I have approached the Gnostic texts in a much more mature way since then in my last two books, “Battles Between Shadow and Light” and “The Nature of the Universe.”

Question #4: There is a theory that a person can shift realities(fantasy, movie plot worlds, sci-fi, etc.) by entering what people call a 'I am' state or void state by relaxing the body and mind and then accessing that state. It is basically a deep meditative state in which people have experienced the instant manifestation of what they want. All they have to do is say an affirmation of having intent in the void state, and then they wake up with manifestations or in their own scripted worlds, different realities like Harry Potter or Marvel Comics, etc., and in whatever body or age they want to have.

The void state feels like you do not have a body, no noises, just peace and emptiness. This description is similar to the khaa/void mentioned in WPP. Apparently, they live their lives in their respective realities for, let's say, 5, 20, or even thousands of years. They can shift back and forth between realities at will, using a void state. I have read people's stories regarding such experiences. You can also have an intent that 1 year you spend in a x reality will be equal to 10 minutes in this original reality, and people are doing this. Whenever they want to return, they enter the void state and have an intent to return at the exact same time they shifted to the very second.

Is what they are experiencing genuine, or is it an AIF Trap to lure people deeper into the matrix? Is it even possible to manifest such realities where you can be any age or have any appearance or personality you like, along with time manipulation, since you mentioned somewhere in WPP that we can eat breakfast in 200 years and that time is irrelevant (this was exactly your words)?

In my opinion, it is plausible, since we are creator gods and there actually exists such a parallel timeline or reality.

What are your thoughts on this?

Comment: Cosmos is multidimensional because Spirit is multidimensional, so yes, these things are all possible. From a material viewpoint, it is not, of course. One has to access other dimensions with the Mind to get results.

Linear time only “exists” in our reality because that’s how we, as a collective, have chosen to look at time here (with a little “help” from outside). Everywhere else, time is different. Take dreaming, for example. You have probably had a dream that stretched over a few years, or at least a few hours or days. Then you wake up and look at the clock. Only 15 minutes have passed. It’s because you were not in the same reality you are when you read this. You are at least partly in the astral when you’re dreaming, and there, time is irrelevant. It’s not an AIF trap, it’s just a human being multidimensional.

Question #5: I know someone who also wants to exit the Grid. But they have a seriously reactive personality due to much wounding during an abusive childhood. Unfortunately, they’ve never committed to a healing path (in the past or present). So it seems to me that if they passed on now and tried to exit the Grid, there are 3 possible outcomes. 1) They might not be able to get through the Grid. 2) They might “provisionally” get through the Grid, but be “sent back” into the Matrix because they’re not ready to live in the Orion universe. 3) They might be directed to a “healing center” in Orion (if such exists) where trained beings would work with them to prepare them to be able to become ready for life in Orion. Please share your thoughts on these possibilities.

Comment: All three are very possible outcomes. If the person resonates vibrationally, they might be able to see the Grid and exit through a hole (or not). If they do, the next destination is Orion—the Greater Universe. There will be gatekeepers, and the soul will be tested to see whether they are ready. If the soul is ready, it can pass. Otherwise, it will be sent back. There is something called a rest place, for sure, I found out, but that will actually be later on, when the soul is ready for that.

It's not a matter of punishment or harsh judgment—it's about resonance. A soul can only exist in a range of resonance where it can exist comfortably. It's impossible for it to be somewhere else. The soul will be assisted to find the correct frequency to dwell within next.

This, too, will be thoroughly discussed in the new book.
