Q&A Session #14, 2026 by Wes Penre, June 10, 2026

Welcome, and thank you for your questions! Please send more to wespenre2@gmail.com, including 'Q&A' in the subject line, so I don't miss your email.

PLEASE READ (2026 News):

Please keep your questions as brief as possible. I understand that sometimes it's not feasible to keep it short when conveying your message. Just doing your best is good enough.

To see my entire book collection, please visit this link on Amazon.com (and then click "see more" at the bottom of the page). Books are now translated into Spanish, German, Russian, Polish, and Estonian by various publishers, including Amazon. In 2026, we will most likely also see my books published in Romanian, one by one.

Very recently, I also released the Wes Penre Papers: Third Level of Learning on Amazon.

Please note: If the question(s) you submit is/are omitted, it's usually for two reasons: there was no space to include all questions that week, so keep an eye open for one of the following Q&As. Alternatively, and for some reason, the question(s) did not fit the hallmark for a Q&A—perhaps too broad or complex to answer in this format. It's never because I think a question is "stupid."

Unfortunately, I don't have time to watch videos that people sometimes send me as part of the question. Instead, please focus on the part of the video that relates to the question and include it in the question. Also, please refrain from sending links or lengthy PDFs; I don't have time to read them. When I receive these attachments and links, I must automatically disregard these questions unless I can comment on them without having to attend to the attachments.

This Q&A will be shorter (3 questions instead of 5). I simply need more questions from you guys, so please submit to wespenre2@gmail.com.

Question #1: Hi Wes, do you happen to know whether, when one goes through a hole in the grid, we instantly arrive in Orion, or are the holes like tunnels that we have to travel through before arriving on the other side? Also, what would be the first thing we see, stars or planets? Would we be on Land? Would other beings see us arrive, or would we just be in Orion and see life far in the distance?

Also, I know you have spoken about Jeshua, but some who know what you know say he was created so religion would be created to control people.

Comment: The Grid surrounds our planet. So, when we go through a hole, we arrive in the solar system (visualize it, and you'll see that this is the case). The astral and the universe at large are thought-responsive, which means that when you find yourself outside the Grid and in the solar system, think yourself to Orion, and you'll be there in literally a nanosecond.

You can create your own thoughts or commands for nanotraveling, but an example would be "I am in Orion NOW." Thinking the inner command in the present tense ("I AM...") and "NOW" appear important because they remove any delay. Time, as we perceive it in a linear form, does not exist outside our 3-D perception, but if we still, out of habit, think in terms of linear time after we've exited, that false limitation may delay us unless we start operating in the present.

Regarding Yeshua, the Catholic Church turned Yeshua's teachings into a religion, thereby creating a solid system of control, pointing to Marduk and Yaldabaoth (En.ki) as Yeshua and God, respectively. Gnostic teachings predate Christianity. However, Gnosticism is not a religion.

Question #2: Who is Eve equivalent to from the Nag Hammadi texts?

Comment: According to the Nag Hammadi, Eve is/was Zoë Sophia, the Orion Queen, "daughter" of Pistis Sophia, who created the physical universe. Zoë was the one who tricked En.ki/Yaldabaoth into blowing Spirit into Adam.

From a Gnostic perspective, we could say there are three main Mother Goddesses: Zoë Sophia (the Orion Queen in the WPP, daughter of Pistis); Pistis Sophia, the Mother Goddess; and Barbelo, the Grandmother Goddess.

Question #3: I know both Enki and Marduk want the technological Singularity to happen, but why does Enki (God) also want us humans to choose nature over technology? Throughout known history, Enki and his son Marduk have been either at peace or at war with each other. Do you know if they are both working together against us, or is there repentance coming from Enki/Yaldabaoth?

Comment: Both Marduk and En.ki have always worked against us, though in different ways. En.ki focuses on developing the biological human, while Marduk seeks the Machine Kingdom (the Singularity) to create a synthetic human, i.e., a silicon-based form.

Regardless, both sides want us under their control. In my upcoming book, "The Singularity is Clear" (a play on Dr. Ray Kurzweil's "The Singularity is Near"), I will delve deeper into this topic.

I haven't seen any signs of repentance from either En.ki or Marduk.
