Q&A Session #17, 2026

by Wes Penre, Aug.1, 2026

Welcome, and thank you for your questions! Please send more to wespenre2@gmail.com, including 'Q&A' in the subject line, so I don't miss your email.

Please keep your questions as brief as possible. I understand that sometimes it's not feasible to keep it short when conveying your message. Just doing your best is good enough.

To see my entire book collection, please visit this link on Amazon.com (and then click "see more" at the bottom of the page). Books are now translated into Spanish, German, Russian, Polish, and Estonian by various publishers, including Amazon. In 2026, we will most likely also see my books published in Romanian, one by one.

AUGUST 2026 NEWS:

Starting in July, I decided to publish two Q&A sessions per month, and I will continue doing so. However, to do that, I need more questions. If I don't have enough questions for a Q&A, I will use as many as I have, e.g., 1, 2, 4... whatever it may be. As long as I have one question, I'll publish. If I have none, I will obviously skip over that particular Q&A and post another one when I have new questions.

Please send me more questions if anything comes up that you want to ask.

Thank you,

Wes

Question #1: When considering your past work and your newest book, "Navigating the Nanoverse", it seems to be focusing on the Gnostic texts with regard to the three types of humans.

I understand completely about Hylics/NPCs, but when we get to Psychics/2UCs and Pneumatics/3UCs, I am now unsure. I had always understood Sophia created the Namlu'u/Aryans with help from the Vulcans or Beings of Fire. It was my understanding that we, meaning those of us who are well awake now, are Namlu'u/3UC/Pneumatics. Now I am unsure.

When did Geradamas come into the picture? I know I have read about him, but I can't recall anything about him helping Sophia. Where is that information found, please?

I don't understand the information in the book where you describe a spark going to Geradamas and also going to Sophia. If the true Namlu'u never stop in Orion but go directly to Geradamas, why would other beings in Orion care that the Namlu'u are royal? Why would they even be jealous of them? How would they even know them?

It seemed to me that the sparks of Geradamas merged with him and were no individuated units that would be able to reside in Orion, creating with others and all the things in the earlier books. It also seems like maybe most of us are not of Geradamas after all? The 2UCs do not have spirit attached, so they are not special and can't create immediately, as the 3UCs can. Please help me understand, Wes!

Comment: Your first question is, when did Geradamas come into the picture? “He/she” (androgynous) came into the picture when the Namlú’u were engineered in Orion. The Namlú’u are the Geradamas splinters from the Pleroma. Geradamas sent these Spirit Splinters (Fires/Light) to the Kenoma to help Sophia retrieve her creation, so Sophia could be free and completely return to her designated “location” in the Pleroma. Right now, she is halfway trapped in the Kenoma—her own creation—because she created the universe without her counterpart.

Geradamas splinters who have achieved Gnosis, i.e., remember who they are, where they came from, their mission, and that they are returning to the Pleroma, may bypass Orion, or go to the Ogdoad (the 2-UC “Heaven”) for a while, until they have completely shed the remnants of the Kenoma system and its beliefs. Then they go back into the Pleroma and to Geradamas.

The Spirit confusion lies in what happened when Yaldabaoth (En.ki) tinkered with our original DNA and created a “bad copy” of Namlú’u bodies—Homo sapiens. He could make the copy, but he could not make Adam move. So, Zoë Sophia, the Orion Queen, blew Spirit into Adam’s body, so Adam could move around. Ultimately, Spirit is Spirit—there is only one Spirit—but Spirit can be delegated into the physical environment from different sources. Zoë breathed Spirit into Adam’s bloodstream (where Adam’s counterfeit soul is located, created by En.ki, but without Spirit in the beginning). Thus, Zoë blew Spirit into Adam’s soul. That is the 2-UC soul/Spirit.

Upon that, Geradamas’ Sparks manifested in the Matrix, attaching to certain Homo sapiens. At the moment the Spark entered the Matrix, It became affected by the amnesia, as well. So, we distinguish Geradamas’ Spark and Sophia’s Breath because they come from different sources and have different destinations, once 2-UCs and 3-UCs achieve Gnosis. Because both have Spirit, both can achieve their own kind of Gnosis, which determines their final destination: Geradamas goes back to the Pleroma, while the 2-UC goes to the Ogdoad, which is a “mini-Pleroma,” of whatever we could call it. The 2-UC can’t return to Pistis Sophia in the Pleroma, since they were created in the Kenoma by Zoë Sophia, who was, at the time of breathing Spirit into Adam, located in the Kenoma. Therefore, that Spirit (breath) must be isolated in a specific location (the Ogdoad) to save them when the Consummation of the Age (the End Time) happens.

Important to note is the 2-UCs part of Pistis Sophia/Geradamas’ Mission: The 3-UC can’t achieve Gnosis without the 2-UC doing it first. When the 2-UC achieves Gnosis, the Spark does it, too, and after bodily death, both go toward their destinations, respectively.

If the 2-UC's body dies without the 2-UC having achieved Gnosis (and, therefore, neither has the 3-UC), both go to Orion since none of them is ready to go to their final destination. Both will have Matrix/Kenoma attachments that will stop them from reaching their ultimate homes. They will either achieve Gnosis in Orion (which is difficult because it's here on Earth you normally achieve Gnosis because it's here the drama developed), or they will stay in Orion until the Consummation of the Age, when they will return "home."

So, in summary, 2-UCs are very special and the majority of the human population (perhaps with the exception of Hylics/NPCs). The Geradamas splinters are few in comparison, but enough to accomplish the Experiment/Mission.

I also explained here how people in Orion will mingle with Sparks that have not yet achieved Gnosis. Also, both 2- and 3-UCs are creators because both comprise Spirit.

If you are still unsure about something, feel free to submit another question for an upcoming Q&A.

Question #2: If Geradamas sent "His" splinters to assist Pistas Sophia, is "He" stuck somewhere as well, until this is all resolved (getting back the soul group in its entirety)? Or can he continue assisting other Aeons in the Pleroma while this is going on?

Comment: Geradamas as a Wholeness is not stuck in the Kenoma (physical universe). Only the Sparks that were sent are. A clumsy attempt at an analogy would be if we pretend you (the "John identity," let's say) is Geradamas. You can have trauma and triggers, etc., but you, as a whole, can still continue to function in daily life. It's truly a clumsy analogy because Geradamas is not negatively affected in his/her Wholeness by what the Sparks are doing here.

Question #3: What is the purpose or role the soul and spirit actually play within our total being (which I believe are the gifts Geradamas gave to each 3UC human - the infinite eternal spirit, soul fires of light)? I believe I become confused as I read that even 2 UCs have spirit.

What are they actually? More importantly, how would they affect one's exit plan?

Comment: I think (and hope) I answered this in my comment to Question #1. If not, please address anything additional in a new Q&A.

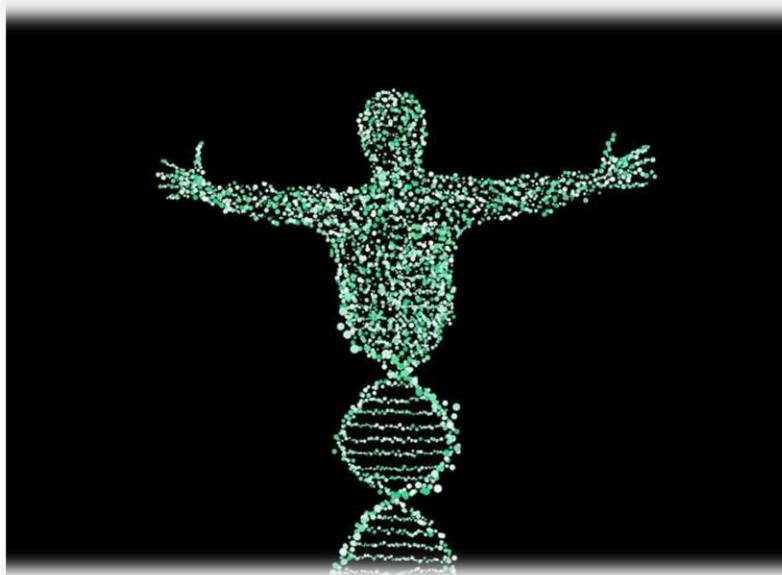

Question #4: So, as I take it, in order for the archons to get into Orion via the invasion: Do they only need Psychic Spirited humans, or do they need Pneumatics as well? In my opinion, they don't need Pneumatics, which always comes with a Psychic, but not all Psychics are Pneumatics(?). Because they can never get to the Pleroma anyway?

Comment: The technocrats of the Singularity don't understand Spirit. They think the brain is the mind, and there is nothing more than that. So, they exclude the most important part of the 3-UC anatomy—Spirit (the Spark). 3-UCs/Pneumatics who have yet to achieve Gnosis after humanity is locked into the AI Cloud (the hive-mind/Singularity), will still hover around, but disconnected from the counterfeit soul (and Spirit from Zoë—the Breath). No more Gnosis will be achieved after the Singularity is in place. The Spirit the technocrats (and the Archons) are primarily interested in is what we have provided them with and have gathered in the Cloud. This is what they call the “collected human mind,” which becomes the hive-mind.

So, it will primarily be the 2-UCs who will attack Orion if the Archons succeed in their efforts. The Spark, however, will follow the 2-UCs, although they won't be able to connect to the 2-UC/Psychic anymore.

Question #5: [In an earlier Q&A you mentioned] archonic DNA. How does one limit the interference of archonic DNA, as well as seek the return and growth of our own true homo sapiens DNA, including its expansion and accessible component, if possible?

Comment: It is the “archontic DNA” that keeps us trapped in the Matrix, and particularly, in our human bodies. The counterfeit soul-mind, which we use in 3-D to think with and interact with, is a result of archontic DNA. Therefore, the only way to lessen the influence of archontic Homo sapiens DNA is to move toward Gnosis and the influence of true Spirit, whether we are 2-UCs or 3-UCs. However, as long as we have our Homo sapiens bodies, we will continue having archontic DNA.

If we want to be really strict, the Namlú'u is also archontic DNA, since those bodies were created with Zoë's and Sabaoth's (En.lil's) DNA—En.lil also being an Archon, albeit a repented one.
