Q&A Session #19, 2026 by Wes Penre, Sep.1, 2026

ACHTUNG, deutsche Leser!

Aus irgendeinem Grund hatte Amazons KI-generierter Algorithmus die deutschen Übersetzungen meines neuen Singularity-Buchs in den „Entwurf“ versetzt, sodass es nur auf Kindle verfügbar war.

Ich habe die physischen Bücher jetzt erneut eingereicht und sie sind wieder verfügbar:

Entschuldigung für die Unannehmlichkeiten,

Wes

Welcome, and thank you for your questions! Please send more to wespenre2@gmail.com, including 'Q&A' in the subject line, so I don't miss your email.

Please keep your questions as brief as possible. I understand that sometimes it's not feasible to keep it short when conveying your message. Just doing your best is good enough.

To see my entire book collection, please visit this link on Amazon.com (and then click "see more" at the bottom of the page). Books are now translated into Spanish, German, Russian, Polish, and Estonian by various publishers, including Amazon. In 2026, we will most likely also see my books published in Romanian, one by one.

SEPTEMBER 2026 NEWS:

Starting in July, I decided to publish two Q&A sessions per month, and I will continue doing so. However, to do that, I need more questions. If I don't have enough questions for a Q&A, I will use as many as I have, e.g., 1, 2, 4... whatever it may be.

Wes Penre Productions

As long as I have one question, I'll publish. If I have none, I will obviously skip that Q&A.

Please send me more questions if anything comes up that you want to ask.

Thank you,

Wes

Question #1: In "The Nature of the Multiverse," you mention that we will be able to create with our minds without technology in Orion, put Geradamas sparks in our creations, make star beings like us, and have the future of Orion filled with Geradamas sparks. But in "Navigating the Nanoverse," you mention that not all of us are Pneumatics (3-UCs) and that some of us are Psychics (2-UCs) who can't create with our minds, only with technology. Can you explain that more clearly? It doesn't seem like there's a clear answer here. At least tell me what you understand.

Comment: The 3-UCs (the Pneumatics) are Spirit Sparks, directly connected to Geradamas (Adamas) in the Pleroma (Spirit Realm). Maybe think about it as a laser beam, shooting out from a larger "body."

Wes Penre Productions

Geradamas is an androgynous creator god in the Pleroma, and his/her/their Spark can create and is directly connected to Geradamas' Mind, without using technology. Once freed from the chains of the 3-D simulation (the homo sapiens body), and after "ascending" to a higher plane of existence (such as Orion), it becomes much easier for the "freed" 3-UC to create deliberately and manifest with their Mind.

Reality is created by the mind.
We can change our reality by changing your mind.

I would suggest that the 2-UC may be able to do some of that, but their Spirit is "weaker" in the sense that it's soul-based rather than a pure Spark. The soul-based Spirit (fire) is the remnant of fractioned Pistis Sophia Spirit, which she blew into the Kenoma (physical universe) shortly after its creation and has "floated around" in the universe since. So, it's "diluted," you could say.

In the WPP, I wrote about Orion technology. That's the technology 2-UCs can use in Orion to create and manifest their ideas. This is why there are "Universities" in Orion, where those who want to become creator gods can learn how to do it.

our reality.”

Question #2: Ever since childhood, I've had a lack of choice in the things that mattered in my life. The only things that I could choose were things that were of no importance. Will that change once I get to Orion/the pleroma? I'm getting very tired and angry about not being able to make my own decisions.

Comment: I suppose you're talking about setting out intentions that rarely come to fruition? Only the "small things" seem to manifest.

That's an interesting statement and may reveal a lot. When we make "small decisions" that don't matter much, we set an intention and then don't think about it again. Because of that, we don't generate any counter-intentions to our original intention, and these thoughts may manifest fairly easily.

Bigger, more important intentions, however, are often stronger, but they may also carry anxiety or doubt about whether they will come to pass. It's much more common to put out counter-intentions for those decisions because they matter—we think about them often, and there is plenty of time for us to doubt whether they will happen. That's why they often won't happen—or they would happen if the person were more alert to the clues that manifest in their reality. If they pay close attention and follow the clues, they lead to more clues, and so on, and eventually the intention manifests.

Yes, once we leave this dense reality we call 3-D and go to Orion, it will be much easier to manifest—with or without Orion technology.

Question #3: If humanity spent roughly 300,000 years living primarily as hunter-gatherers, seemingly in relative harmony with nature and ourselves, before the advent of agriculture and rigid control systems, how do you interpret this immense "nice" span of time within your narrative? I have read many anthropology books, and it really seems like we had it better back then, with satisfying human connections and readily available food. If they already had our modern human brains and bodies and yet lived well in harmony with nature for hundreds of thousands of years, why did the controllers WAIT SO LONG to force them into agricultural slavery at all?

Comment: The problem with modern anthropology is that the time frame is often way off. In the Wes Penre Papers (WPP), I discussed how the Namlú'u lived here on Earth before Noah's Great Flood. Then came a purge, and En.ki "saved" his genetic tinkering—homo sapiens sapiens.

After all these years of research, I believe it was deliberately on Orion's part. Orion wanted En.ki/Yaldabaoth to create homo sapiens, so we, 2-UCs and 3-UCs, in symbiosis, could disperse the shadow/darkness/ignorance from within. More about this in my most recent book, "The Singularity: The Creation of a Digital Hive-Mind."

The time before the Flood is often called Atlantis and Mu (Lemuria), both of which were highly evolved civilizations. Many alternative researchers suggest the Flood happened between 9,000 and 13,500 years ago, but I think this is incorrect. Yes, there may have been an ice age then, and perhaps a Flood as well, but it was not Noah's Flood. Noah's Flood happened about 1,800 years after Adam (the first Homo sapiens) saw the light of day, and according to more reliable annals, that was no more than about 6,000-8,000 years ago. After that, humans had to start all over, and at first they became hunter-gatherer tribes. Not until about 5,000 years ago did the first acknowledged human civilizations arise, with a lot of "help" from the "Anunnaki." These were old Mesopotamia (Sumer) and ancient Egypt.

Question #4: I recently came across your work and want to thank you for it; it has been very enlightening. My question concerns Christianity—specifically the prophecy of the Final Judgment in the New Testament, where the chosen are taken up, and the remaining souls are reaped.

Wes Penre Productions

I would like to know your opinion on this judgment and on the New Jerusalem, where everyone will have God's name written on their foreheads and will live without suffering in a perfect city with God.

Comment: The Christian prophecy, such as that in the Book of Revelation and the Book of Daniel, is the "archontic prophecy." This means the false gods of this manipulated and controlled reality dictated it to John the Divine and Daniel. Will it play out? Yes, probably. At least some of it, if the Archons (Anunnaki) have their way. Of course, the prophecy is heavily allegorical and metaphorical, and therefore deliberately difficult to interpret accurately.

The Christian prophecy, like almost everything else in our reality, is inverted, and a mirror of an underlying prophecy that has to do directly with humans liberating the universe from the Archons (discussed a lot in my books). It has to do with Destiny and Fate, both of which are crucial to this physical existence. In fact, only humans can liberate the universe from archontic influence and restore order out of the chaos (chaos being the physical universe, the way it is manifesting).

Question #5: I have a question about hearing sounds. I would like to know your thoughts and whether you hear them, too?

Wes Penre Productions

It started in the 1990s. I could hear this low hum... mostly at nighttime, but I could also hear it during the day.

It was very annoying!

I was going to a meditation group, and the leader said she had heard it, which was her sign to connect with the "Angels."

I had quite a going shortly after, as I didn't feel comfortable with her calling on the Angels or doing what she was doing as the spiritual medium. Others told me it was the HARRP and to shut it out.

It lasted a few months, then stopped. For the past 10 years, when I sat in silence, I could hear this humming, but it was higher, like singing bowls. Sometimes just one, other times more than one.

I am hearing it more and more these past few years. When I sit in silence, it starts, then stops when I get up.

My question is.. would you know if these sounds are from the simulation?

OR

Are they coming through the holes in the grid? I do not feel any discomfort with them. I hear the lower hum, but not the higher ones. I would appreciate your thoughts on this. Perhaps I am not the only one hearing them? I have also seen things since I was very young and still do today. I have experienced "beings" in our home. I could see, hear, and feel them. I did clear them out.

Comment: Although I haven't heard this myself, you are not crazy. Many people have reported very similar things—sometimes groups of people who heard them simultaneously. So, what is it?

I can't say for sure it's this or that because I don't know. I can only speculate. Is it HAARP? That's not impossible, but I don't think so (I could be wrong). Is it coming from Saturn? I seriously doubt it. Are they atmospheric disturbances? More likely—yes. Sound travels through the atmosphere. This points to an atmospheric phenomenon. And no, being "angels" is at the bottom of my list, LOL.

You also asked whether it comes from outside the Grid. I would answer that with a definite no. Nothing outside the Grid produces sounds like that. I hold that the sounds are from within the atmosphere.
