
Q&A Session #20, 2026 by Wes Penre, Sep.15, 2026

Welcome, and thank you for your questions! Please send more to wespenre2@gmail.com, including 'Q&A' in the subject line, so I don't miss your email.

Please keep your questions as brief as possible. I understand that sometimes it's not feasible to keep it short when conveying your message. Just doing your best is good enough.

To see my entire book collection, please visit this link on Amazon.com (and then click "see more" at the bottom of the page). Various publishers, including Amazon, have translated the books into Spanish, German, Russian, Polish, and Estonian. In 2026, we will most likely also see my books published in Romanian, one by one.

Question #1: I recently got your new book (The Singularity: The Creation Of A Digital Hive Mind). On page 117, it says, Additionally, since the remnant of Sophia's Spirit dwells in our bloodstream, our biological bodies will be replaced by nanobots, which means humanity will lose its bodily connection with Sophia. This means 2-UCs will become 1-UCs, i.e., NPCs without spirit. How will this benefit the Archons? You wrote in your previous books that the Archons need our connection to spirit so they can attach their consciousness to ours to be able to reenter the Orion construct. Are you now saying that 1-UCs can enter Orion and that the Archons no longer need our connection to spirit? Please explain.

Comment: It's thrilling that my new book is a number one bestseller at Amazon in the Nanotechnology section—it's listed as such, as readers can see if you follow the link in your question.

To your question: It simply means that Sophia's breath (the Spirit she tricked the Demiurge into blowing into Adam), comprising trillions of fires, is currently located in the cells—in the bloodstream. However, technocrats in Silicon Valley and huge global enterprises are now working to replace all blood cells with nanobots—something that began years ago as a pilot. If the blood cells are replaced, Sophia's Spirit, which is now giving life to our bodies and enabling them to move, will be replaced with a synthetic version designed to give the human body a very long lifespan—eventually, the technocrats are aiming for immortal bodies.

What does this mean? It means the body, now a 2-UC (matter/Sophia's breath), will become a 1-UC because the "breath" is removed. However, the remnant Spirit remains stored in the iCloud, which the synthetic human, the cyborg "1-UCs," can access via implants and El-on Musk's satellites. So the human mind will be fed to the human body from "outside," i.e., the Singularity Cloud.

More importantly, most humans are already more or less disconnected from their Higher Selves, which is the Spark, and ultimately, our common Higher Self, the Aeon Geradamas (Adamas) in the Pleroma. But each of us still has the chance to connect to it (and that's where the Gnostic texts, aimed at giving the reader Gnosis, come into play). In the Singularity, the Spark is still here, but because humanity transmute from a carbon-based species to a purely synthetic one, humanity will lose that ability.

The Archons' delusional plan is to make us descend to their Machine Kingdom in the lower realms of the astral, so they can mingle with us "in person," without having to just attach to us the way they do now. Then they think they can ride the Avatars, which will still be 2-UCs and/or 3-UCs because of the Spirit content in the iCloud and the sleeping 3-UC (the Pneumatic/the Spark).

Question #2: From your writings, I have understood that a Psychic's/2-UC's personality is destroyed after each lifetime, and that each new life begins with a so-called blank slate and a new personality is built with each reincarnation.

Wes Penre Productions

If only the personality from the most recently lived life leaves the Matrix—let's say, for example, John, who is not a Pneumatic/3-UC—will John, upon leaving the Grid, begin to remember all of his previous incarnations? Or does this apply only to Pneumatics, since the Spark is not destroyed in the Between Lives Area and the Spark remembers everything and helps the Psychic part recover all memories?

And can those who are Pneumatics/3-UCs, have achieved Gnosis, and are connected to their Spark still access the memories of their previous lifetimes during their current lifetime because the Spark remembers?

Comment: These are excellent questions! Thank you! As for the first question, here is a fairly new conclusion, based on progressive research and pondering: We only live once; i.e., “John” in your example is Jon only in that incarnation. If he, after death, goes to the recycling center, the individual/personality John developed in his lifetime will now be completely erased by archontic AI. The memories still remain, since nothing is ever completely destroyed. Every experience remains in “storage,” but the person who was once John no longer exists. A new soul will be shot down into a vacant body within the same bloodline John lived in, but it’s no longer John. The new soul starts all over from scratch and builds a totally new personality for that lifetime only. However, since “John” still lives on through the new soul’s genetic ancestry, the new soul has subconscious access to John and can draw some knowledge from what John learned—good or bad. But not only John. I forget now, but any of us, living now, has subconscious access to our ancestral line; I think 9 or 12 generations back.

Wes Penre Productions

But back to your question: Since John has only lived once, he only remembers the John character when he exits through the Grid and thereafter. However, if he is a 3-UC, he also has Geradamas' Spark, and the Spark carries memories of the Matrix that John can use if he, for example, goes to Orion.

Since the Spark is never destroyed (though it's mostly under amnesia), it essentially remembers everything that's ever happened in the Kenoma (physical universe). So, when a person achieves Gnosis and leaves this dense construct, where amnesia is the central part, the Spark starts remembering if the 2-UC that carries the Spark (which makes him/her a 3-UC) is ready, and if that 2-UC is "John," John will remember through the Spark.

Question #3: Regarding Antarctica:

1. Is it true that under the ice cap, there is another world/city already built?
2. Who controls it?
3. What type of aliens are there?
4. Is it true that Hitler met E.T. there and got help with Tech?

Comment: 1) Yes, that certainly seems to be the case. 2) In some parts of it, humans are in control, although their masters are the astral-based Archons, who ultimately claim ownership of the honeycombed underground region of Earth. In other parts, the Reptoids live. I have written about them in the WPP and in my books. They are an earlier experiment that was abandoned, and the Reptoids were forced underground when homo sapiens had been "successfully" created. There are also ancient cities and structures there, according to ancient texts, used when En.ki and his team honeycombed the Earth. 3) See previous answer. There could be other previous experiments living there, too, such as Bigfoot. None of these are aliens, though. They have always been residents of planet Earth. They are just experiments within the Experiment—just like we are. 4) There is evidence that Hitler was contacted by “aliens” even before he went to Antarctica (see the book “Spear of Destiny” by Trevor Ravenscroft as one example). But yes, he was in touch with the Archons, and he was scared to death of them. It gave him access to technology, so the Nazis could build flying saucers, etc., by using the technology the Archons gave them.

Question #4: I have just finished your latest book - thank you - it's great like all the others.

I was relieved to read towards the end about the possibility of The Divine Inversion.

I have a question about this, and I would like you to answer it, please.

You say: When the awakening Sparks, collected inside a hive mind and thus tightly networked, these synthetic avatars fully realise their true origin.

And this leads to the retrieval of the Light and the collapse of the Rulers.

My question is, why did this not happen in the timeline when the Sparks invaded Pleiades?

They must have been collected inside a hive mind then?

Also, we have entities from the future who tell us they are ourselves in the future, returning to our time and speaking through channels. Since the Singularity must have played out previously, why do you think it could be different this time?

Comment: Good questions! And thanks for reading my book! On the parallel timeline the Pleiadians are talking about, human cyborgs, coming straight out of the Singularity, attacked the Pleiades and invaded it.

Perhaps the Sparks did wake up—at least to a certain extent—but before En.ki (on that timeline) and his crew had the chance to ride our Avatars to Orion, humans may have woken up to who these Archons are and realized who had trapped them (which was essentially En.ki on that timeline, but it's Marduk now). We learned that En.ki had one of his greatest strongholds in the Pleiades, so we “teleported” ourselves there and took over. This is just a theory—we know very little about the invasion's details.

I would strongly suggest that the entities from the future (which are mostly hive-minds) are not entities, and they are not humans from the future. They are archontic pilot programs, preparing humans to get used to, and even long for, the Singularity, so we can also become hive-minds and “ascend” to the New Age higher (read lower) dimensions (deeper into the archontic trap). Most (if not all) of these channeled “beings” are archontic AI programs. That’s what I strongly suggest.

Question #5: Hey Wes, you said your Contact wasn't so sure about Gnostic texts and even disliked them. Then why are we referring to and considering the Gnostic texts so much, and giving them almost equal importance as we give to WPP? What changed?

I am truly sorry if this question came across as disrespectful in any way.

It's just a curiosity and nothing else.

Comment: It doesn't come across as disrespectful at all. It comes across as an authentic question. The answer is quite simple and short: I am not my Contact. However, when we study the Gnostic texts, we need to be careful because some of it is Archon-influenced. But when I use the Wes Penre Papers [WPP] (wespenre.com) as a reference, a major part of the Gnostic texts fit in there pretty well. It's the same story told from two different perspectives. From that perspective, the Nag Hammadi Gnostic texts become pretty interesting, and to me, they extend the already great information in the WPP.

I also think my Contact disliked the Gnostic texts because they led to Marduk taking over the Christian religion and mocking Prince Ninurta, Yeshua. This led to Yaldabaoth (En.ki) becoming God, and Marduk hijacking the Jesus/Yeshua role. Therefore, if we read the text wrong, they can be deceptive.

Question #6: Hi Wes, hope all is well with you. While reading your new book, I came across a passage saying a new incarnation of Isis was born in 1985. However, her last incarnation as Princess Diana lasted past this date; she was murdered in 1997. So how would that work?

By the way, great book so far!

Comment: I'm surprised I don't get this question more often because it's a good one.

To understand this, we must also understand how a soul can split and be in several places at the same time. Or so it appears to us here in the Matrix. We think time is linear, but that's just our mutual perception (linear time is mostly kept in place because of trauma. When we split and disconnect from traumatic events under amnesia, we tend to think it happened in the past). There is only one eternal present where everything happens in a present moment. Therefore, time as we know it is irrelevant. When a person knows what they're doing, they can insert "parts of themselves" in different times simultaneously and let it play out. Therefore, a grown-up Isis may die in 1997, while another "version" is born maybe 10 to 15 years earlier. At one point, the two coexisted in the "same" time.
